

PROPERTY OWNERS: THINKING ABOUT HOSTING A MOBILE FOOD VENDOR?

Know Before You Host

WHAT PROPERTY OWNERS NEED TO KNOW

YOU SHARE RESPONSIBILITY

Allowing an unauthorized vendor may result in a citation to both the operator and the property owner.

CITY AUTHORIZATION REQUIRED

Mobile Food Vendors must receive an authorization from the City prior to operating.

ZONING MATTERS

Food trucks are only allowed in specific zoning districts and under certain conditions.

NOT ALLOWED ON THE BEACH

Mobile Food Vendors are not permitted on the City beach.

PARKING MATTERS

Minimum parking spaces are required on your property for each vendor.

Additional parking may be required based on seating and setup.

Existing businesses must still meet their required parking.

Safe access and circulation must be maintained.

AVOID ISSUES BEFORE THEY START

- ✓ Confirm the vendor has City authorization.
- ✓ Make sure your property meets zoning requirements.
- ✓ Ensure adequate parking is available.
- ✓ Plan for safe and orderly setup.
